COLUMBIA GRANTS DEGREES TO 1,943

Impressive Ceremonies Attend Graduation of University's Largest Class.

TEN NOTED MEN HONORED

Long List of Prizes Awarded-2,000 Alumni at Banquet in Gymnasium.

Columbia University opened its portals vesterday for the graduation of nearly 2 600 students. It was a record breaking class, 1.491 degrees being awarded and 452 diplomas and certificates, making a Dean Frederick P. Keppel of Columbia College presented the first group of grad-uates for their degrees, those taking the sheepskins as bachelors of arts and bachelors of science from Columbia Col-Owing to the numbers graduated the time honored custom of handing to each graduate his diploma with a set speech has long been abandoned at Columbia. The graduates stood up in a body and were presented by the dean. President Butler in a few words told them that they were admitted to the degree and that they would find their diplomas awaiting them in the registrar's office. Then he was ready for the next group. Following the Columbia boys came the graduates of Barnard College presented by Dany Virginia C. Gildersleeve. They graduates of Barnard Conege property Dean Virginia C. Gildersleeve. They ed a round of applause and a hearty from the Columbia boys when they after the presentation. Dean lan Fiske Stone came from a sick bed Englewood to present the 137 candldates for law degrees.

New Doctors Take Oath.

There was a moment of tense solemnity liege of Physicians and Surgeons aded the hippocratic oath of the medicine and then presented them for their degrees.

The engineering graduates, including those taking the degree of engineer of mines, metallurgical engineer, civil engineer, mechanical engineer and chemist, were presented by Dean Frederick A. Geetze. Dean F. J. E. Woodbridge pre-sented the candidates for the degree in architecture and later those getting the de-philosophy.

Dr. Talcott Williams, director of the School of Journalism, brought forward the sitteen candidates for the degrees in the School of Journalism and Dr. James E. Russell presented the 247 graduates of Teachers College who were getting degrees and 439 who were to receive diplomas. There were 488 candidates for the master of arts degree in the group presented by Dean Woodbridge and sixty-three candidates for the Ph. D. three candidates for the Ph. D.

There were twenty-three Chinamen in the list of graduates, three or four East Indians, more than a dozen Japanese and dians, more than a dozen Japanese and idents from every part of the world, inspicuous among the candidates for the A. M. degree was David Edward Guyton, a graduate of Blue Mountain College, a graduate of Blue Mountain College, Mississippi, who was the first totally blind man to receive an advanced degree from Columbia. One familiar figure was lack-ing. It was that of William Cullen Bry-

Aristides Agramonte-University of Havana, B. A.; Columbia, M. D.; professor of bacteriology and experimental pathol-John Huston Finley—Commissioner president of Columbia, trustee for thirtypeter and Karl F. Rathgen each received which was celebrating its twenty-fifth an-honorary degrees at the December, 1913, meeting of the trustees and their names a bronze replica of Meunier's "The Ham-were included in the programme. Many Prizes Awarded.

Harold A. Lamb, 1915, received the H. Bunner medal for the best essay on an assigned subject in American stein prize of $200, established in memory and Mrs. D. L. Einstein, for the best and most original work in American diplomacy, was awarded to Dallas Selwyn

Townsend of Raeford, N. C. The Earle prize in classics, established of Mortimer Lamson Earle, led to Edwin Hermann Zeydel,

New York city. other prizes awarded were: xian Prizes — Essay, Hoxie Neale 1917, of New York city. Oratory, darlett Keyes, 1914, of Cooperstown, behating, C. M. Keyes.

Columbia College.

Association prize to the most and deserving student, Albert Cyril 1914, New York city.

M. Rolker prize for the student most worthy of special distinction as graduate student because of scholparticipation in student activibert F. Smithers, 1914, New York William Curtis medals, established the generosity of Samuel Putnam awarded for excellence in the nerosity of excellence in tracked for excellence in tracked of original English oration of original English oration man. 1915, New York City.

on Elsberg prize for excellence story. Henry Ernest Grimshaw.
en City. N. Y.
of Green prize of $50, awarded of the senior class who has t record in scholarship during state course. Edwin Hermann New York city.

Phelps Stokes prize of $40, beCaroline Phelps Stokes, awarded by enrolled student in Columbia, Teachers College who has writtopic bearing. ash Van Buren, Jr., prize, an annual f $5,000, the gift of Mrs. Louis T. memory of her nephew, for the dination in mathematics. Walter E. 17. New York city. 1916. New York dity.

Howard Van Amringe mathematical an annual income of $2,566, for the most proficient in mathematics, Leo 1916, New York city.

School of Law.

ree prize, the annual income of $1,000, Converse prize, the annual income of $1,000, warded to the member of the graduating class of the law school who writes the best varies of the law school who writes the best varies of the Brunswick, N. J.

Grannaux prize, the annual income of 10,000 awarded for general proficiency in least study. Theodore Stanwood Kenyon of New York city and Andrew Penn Martin of Wilmington.

Schools of Mines, Engineering and Chemistry. Illig Medals .-- Awarded by the faculty to Teachers College. Prize of the Colonial Dames-Mary Catherine Keith, 1915, New York city.

College of Pharmacy.

Seth Low-Columbia, B. A.; eleventh

After the exercises the class of 1889. which was celebrating its twenty-fifth ana bronze replica of Meunier's "The Ham-merman." The figure, which is of life size, was unveiled in the court in front of the School of Mines building. More than 2,000 alumni sat down to the annual luncheon, which was held in the university gymnasium. John Vernou Bouvier was the toastmaster and the first speaker was Seth Low. He was followed by Dr. Finley, Commissioner of Education, to-day at Sunny Bunk. Mr. and Mrs. gerfield, W. L. L. (eorge F. Crane will open Bucksteep former president. Dr. Aristides Agramonte also spoke and Dr. Butler delivered Francis L. Leland of New York, who had ander Harrison. his annual speech to the alumni. Dr. Butler outlined a plan for admission to Columbia's graduate schools, which is being worked out, and which will open Columbia's documents. Columbia's doors only to those fitted to take work there. "It is one thing to take in those who are incompetent and unable to profit by their training at Columbia; it is another thing to maltreat the incom way Dr. Butler put it.

OLD GRADS MAKE MERRY. Class of 1905 Takes Prize With Travesty on the I. W. W.

The I. W. W.'s furnished the basis of plot to the class of 1905 of Columbia Colleg for its annual commencement day frob The 1905 alumni, togged out in overalls and with their faces smeared with grease, cavorted around South Fleid, worshipping one Uptown Eclair. After casting him out they placed Boob White on a pedestal. While they were worshipping the Boob along came a large man in a checked suit with dollar signs between the checks. He had a pasteboard automobile, which he pushed ahead of him. He was Rocky-feller and when the I. W. W.'s finished with him he was hors de combat. The celebration won for the class of 1905 the prize awarded by the decennial class of 1904 for the most original idea. Classes from 1874 down to 1913 were in the parade. While the alumni were having a "songfest" on the library steps last night President Butler was entertain-ing the honorary degree men and the university trustees at a dinner at the Metro-

BARNARD ALUMNÆ PARADE. Class of 1914 Takes Prize With Evolution Completely Illustrated. at the Winter Garden.

ing parties on the lake. Tea was served at the boathouse this afternoon. Miss Eleanor Adler, Mrs. Morris Gray

Frederick E. Watermeyer of New York has opened his country place in Becket. Mrs. Francis C. Barlow of Boston arrived

NEW YORKER DECORATED

Joseph Freedlander Is Made Knight of the Legion of Honor.

Joseph Freedlander, the architect of 244 party Joseph Freedlander, the architect of 244 Fifth avenue, has been informed by the French Embassy at Washington that he had been made a Knight of the Legion of Honor. Mr. Freelander is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and has received the diploma of the Ecole des Beaux Arts, where he went after his party and relatives will follow at 111

East Thirty-ninth street.

Miss Marguerite Schley, a daughter of Dr. J. Montfort Schley, will be married to John Harper Bonnoll this afternoon in the Church of the Heavenly Rest. A semail reception will follow at the home of the bride, 24 West Fifty-fourth street.

He took a leading part for many years.

studies in this country.

Since his return he has been active in architectural education and founded one of the first ateliers in conjunction with the work of the Beaux Arts Society here. e is president of the American group the Societe des Architectes Diplomes par le Gouvernement, a trustee of the Museum of French Art in the United States, and a member of the advisory board of the French Drama Society. Some of Mr. Freedlander's executed architectural works include the Perry Memorial at Putin Eay, the Portland Auditorium, the Importers and Traders National Bank and lehem, Pa. the Harlem Hospital.

Plays and Players,

Abbe Prevest's remance "Manon Lescaut" in motion picture form will be shown at the Republic Theatre on Saturday, with Lina Cavalier! and Lucien Film Company, under whose auspices the were made. Muriel Window, who was the "Parisian Futurist Girl" last winter at Ciro's cafe in Paris, has been engaged for "The in Paris, has been engaged for "The Passing Show of 1914," which will have its initial performance on Saturday night

Missishelp, who was heave totally blind man to receive an advanced degree from commissioner of the graduating class for commensations of the first time in years had to be content with standing on the steps of standing on the steps of the first time in years had to be content with standing on the steps of standing on the steps of the class of 1819 and the same time of the deputation of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the deputation of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the deputation of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and the same time of the class of 1819 and t

LENOX COLONISTS LAND PERCH. citadels and hills nathed in golden light tower to the sky, and in the foreground are the temples and houses of the ancient Fishing Parties on Lake Mahkeenac, city the painting attempts to recreate.

Frederic Remington is in the collection with "Old Times Plain Fight" and Julian Breitenbach Frize—Samuel R. Drapkin, 1914. New York city.

Lenox, Mass., June 3.—Perch fishing at Lake Mahkeenac is an attraction for the cottagers. To-day there were four fishing parties on the lake. Tea was served the light that filters through the leaves. P. L. Rousseau's "Irish Setters". is an alert and sensitive essay Miss Eleanor Adler, Mrs. Morris Gray and Mrs. John Burnett have arrived in Stockbridge. Mrs. H. S. Randall and Miss Randall of Brooklyn are at the Curtis Hotel. Miss Edith Bryce is visiting in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Woodward of Washington arrived to-day at Eden Hill. Stockbridge.

Fredrick F. Waternays of New York. Other works are by T. H. Robinson, Bruce

Crane, Silas Dustin, W. Granville Smith, Arthur Hoeber, J. Alden Weir, E. Daingerfield, W. L. Lathrop, William A. Coffin, Winelow Homer, Childe Hassam, George Winelow Homer, Childe Hassam, George De Forest Brush, J. W. Beatty and Alex-

Notes of the Social World. Miss Mary Cutting Cumnock, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Cumnock, will be married to George Barnard Wagstaff this afternoon Church, Stuyvesant Square. A small re-ception for the members of the brida for the members of the bridal and relatives will follow at 111

At Lancaster, Pa., to-day Miss Elizabeth Gress, daughter of Mrs. George W. Gress, will be married to George E. Wyeth of this city.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Greene, a daughter of Gen. Francis Vinton Greene. to Russell W. Bryant will take place toorrow afternoon in Trinity Chapel, Buf-

Miss Leonie Brodhead, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Davis Brodhead, will be married to John G. McCoy to-day in the Church of the Holy Infancy, South Beth-

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould at Agawam, their country place at Ardsley on Hudson. Later Mr. and Mrs. George will go to Furlough Lodge in the indepe Catskills.

Thomas Pelham Curtis.

The wedding of Miss Ruth Fletcher, aughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fletcher, to A. Frederick Bradley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Frederick Bradley campus of that college. The classes of 159, '90 and '91, the first three to graduate from the university when it was located at 343 Madison avenue, were guests at the iuncheon and took part in the campus of that college. The classes of 159, '90 and '91, the first three to graduate from the university when it was located at 343 Madison avenue, were guests at the iuncheon and took part in the campus of that college. The classes of 159, '90 and '91, the first three to graduate from the university when it was located at 343 Madison avenue, were guests at the iuncheon and took part in the campus of Mr. and Mrs. A. Frederick Bradley of New Rochelle, will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Melrose, Mass. When the many class of 150 and '91, the first three to graduate from the university when it was located at 343 Madison avenue, were guests at the iuncheon and took part in the campus of New Rochelle, will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's perfect to make the form the university when it was located at 343 Madison avenue, were guests at the iuncheon and took part in the vacation. He expects to sail this week for level of New Rochelle, will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's perfect to make the commissioner in Brooklyn and during his entitle of New Rochelle, will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's perfect to make the commissioner in Brooklyn and the results of New Rochelle, will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's perfect to make the classes of New Rochelle, will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's perfect to make the classes of New Rochelle, will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's perfect to make the classes of New Rochelle, will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's perfect to make the classes of New Rochelle, will take place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's perfect to make the classes of New Rochelle, will take place

ALEXANDER E. ORR DIES AT 84 YEARS

Heart Disease and Old Age Combine to End Active Career of Financier.

was nearly 75 years old.

He retired from business about two years ago and since then his strength had failed rapidly. His physician, Dr. John A. McCorkie, said death was due to the strength had failed rapidly. His physician, Dr. 1890, and Mr. French married Alice Helm to heart failure brought on by old age. two sons, Henry M. and Prentiss. Mr. Orr's three daughters, Mrs. James B. Nise, Mrs. Albert H. Munsell and Miss Mary M. Orr, were with their father when the end came. Funera, services will be held at Christ Church, Brooklyn, at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning. Bishop Burgess will officiate.

A Native of Ireland.

him attending the company's training school and he received his early educa-tion from a tutor. When he was 19 young Orr was sent

When he was 19 young Orr was sent on a sea voyage for his heaith, sailing on a ship that took three months to go from Cardiff to Wilmington, N. C., where Mr. Orr got his first glimpse of the country that was to be his home. He travelled about the United States a bit, liked what he saw and the following year came here to settle permanently.

what he saw and the following year came here to settle permanently.

For a short time he stayed in Philadelphia, and then came to New York, where he got a job in the shipping and commission house of Ralph Post. He was next employed by Wallace & Wickes, and in 1858 went to David Dows & Co., which had been formed in 1825 and was to become, partly through his efforts, one of the largest grain and commission houses in the Western world.

About this time he married Miss Juliet Buckingham Dows, daughter of the original head of the concern, and in 1861 he nal head of the concern, and in 1861 he was admitted to partnership in the firm. It has been long since all the members

Mr. Orr these discontinued.

Mr. Orr joined the Produce Exchange in 1859 and was many times its president. He was chairman of the committee which constructed the still notable but no longer lofty structure fronting on Bowling Green, and he was the author of the greatuity system of the organization.

gratuity system of the organization.

Green and he was the author of the East in connection with the world conference for Christian unity.

He took a leading part for many years in the work of the Chamber of Commerce $167,620 in payment of Mr. Foster's share and served as its president. Upon the of the award made by the Chilean Government of John A. McCall from the ernment in payment of the Alsop claim. and served as its president. Upon the resignation of John A. McCail from the presidency of the New York Life Insurance Company in 1905 Mr. Orr chosen to succeed him. He took the at a salary of $50,000 a year, or what Mr. McCall had been paid. He resigned in 1907, notwithstanding the ef-forts of the directors to keep him by lightening his duties. The following year e retired from the board of directors. Mr. Orr's first wife died in 1872. His econd marriage was in 1873 to Miss Margaret S. Luquer, a great-granddaughter of Chief Justice Shippen of Pennsylvania. She died in 1913. In politics Mr. Orr was active and endent. He was associated with Bigelow, Daniel Magone and John Mr. and Mrs. Dulany Howland will go D. Van Buren in the Canal Commission to Newport early in July.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Falconer have exposed the canal ring frauds and led to placing the State canals under the White Plains, N. Y.

sppointed by Gov. Tilden in 1875, which exposed the canal ring frauds and led to placing the State canals under the State Superintendent of Public Works. Mrs. William Allen has gone to Nahant, Mass., where they are the guests of Mrs. Was a Tilden Presidential elector in 1876. In 1881 he supported Seth Low for Mayor of Brooklyn.

Voted for McClellan.

tire career was identified with many civic, financial and charitable organizations. In his last years he had retired from participation in many of the institutions, but he retained his place as vice-president of the Mecnanics National Bank and as a director in the United States Trust Company.

OLD POINT, Va., June 3.—Temperature, 70.

His membership in a few clubs, including the Century Association, the Hamilton, the Atlantic Yacht and the Riding and Driving Club of Brooklyn, was said to be largely a formality, as when he was not attending to business in Manhattan he was nearly always to be found in the study of his big house in Remsen street, Brooklyn. in the study of h street, Brooklyn.

WILLIAM M. R. FRENCH.

John A. McCorkie, said death was due of Chicago, who survives him. He leaves

Charles W. Hallett.

Charles W. Hallett, 83 years old, died yesterday at his home, 95 Remsen street, Astoria, where he had lived since he was 18 months old. He was born in Manhat-tan, but his parents died when he was an infant and he was taken to the old family home at Hallett's Cove, Astoria. He was Mr. Orr was born in Strathbane, Ireland, in 1831. He was really a Scot, his ancestors having left their own country and settled in Ireland the century before. His parents, who were well to do, planned for him a career in the service of the British East India Company, but an accident which crippled him prevented him attending the company's training school and he received his early educations and the service of the Long Island City. He was an alternate delegate to the Republican national convention which nominated McKinley in trustee of the Long Island City Savings Bank when it was organized more than thirty years ago. He leaves two sons, a daughter, seventeen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. five great-grandchildren.

Winthrop A. Welch.

Winthrop A. Welch of the firm of Walter Cook & Winthrop A. Welch, architects, of 3 West Twenty-ninth street, Manhattan, died yesterday morning at his home on Central Drive, Douglas Manor, Douglas-ton, Queens borough. When he returned home from his office Tuesday night he was apparently in good health.

WILL CLOSE TRINITY IN JULY. No Services There for Two Months This Summer.

Old Trinity Church, at the head of Wall street, will be closed during July and August for painting and repairs. I of the famous firm with the exception of Mr. Orr died, and after the death of David Dows in 1885 the business was discontinued.

Mr. Orr joined the Produce Exchange (Mr. Orr joined the Produce Exchange)

the Hatfield collection bore signatures of Harriet Beecher Stowe, Noah Webster, Emerson, Dickens, Warren Hastings, Gladstone, Napoleon I., Mark Twain, Bryant, Cooper, Holmes, George Sand, Hamfiton, Jefferson, Israel Putnam, Lord North and Sam Houston. The total for the sale was

The Bishop William Croswell Doane collection will be auctioned off to-day and to-morrow. BARRYMORE ILL ON STAGE.

John Barrymore, who is playing in "Th Yellow Ticket," was taken suddenly it was taken suddenly ill with gallstones, according to his man-A. H. Woods, during the first acof the play on Tuesday night and col-lapsed so utterly that the curtain had be rung down He was sent to his home at 36 Gramercy Park and has been confined to his bed since. Mr. Woods says that Barry more will be back in the cast on Monday Edward Foley successfully took up the part after Mr. Barrymore left on Tuesday

WILLS AND APPRAISALS.

CAROLINE W. SOMMER, who died on May 19 at 259 West Ninety-third street, left an estate of $200,000 to five sons and a daughter. DANIEL MCELROY, who died May 27, left more than $50,000 to his wife, three to curb the interests in control of the con-struction and operation of the subway Gronge J. Fosten-William G. Choate surviving executor under the will of George J. Foster, filed a final account ing yesterday, showing that he received distributed to Mr. Foster's heirs is $132.741.

Festival and Pageant of Nations, "Yiddish Night." dish Night, Public School 63, Fourth street east of First avenue, evening.

Columbia Un ersity commencement, Barnard College class day, university gymnasium, 3 P. M.
United States Commission on Industrial Relations, public hearing, City Hall.

American Museum of Natural History.

American Museum of Natural History, motion pictures of African animals, audi-torium of the museum, 8:15 P. M. Flavoring extracts manufacturers' convention, Hotel Astor, 10:30 A. M. Interstate Stove Manufacturers, meeting, Hotel Astor, 2 P. M.

Railroad Branch Y. M. C. A., r the National Island Y. M. C. A., exercises at opening of new building, 399 Park avenue, 8 P. M.
Lecture, "The Romance of the Log From Forest to Fireside," Prof. William Noyes, Craftsman Club. 6 East Thirty-ninth street, 2:30 P. M.

Weather at Spring Resorts.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, June 3.—Tem-erature, 72; partly cloudy. erature, 72; partly cloudy.
ATLANTIC CITY, June 3.—Temperature. OLD POINT, Va., June 3 .- Temperature, OPERA AT COUNTRY CLUB.

First June "Musical Morning" Is Nassau Success.

The first of the June "musical moraings" at the clubhouse of the Nassau Country Club, Glen Cove, L. I., was enjoyed yesterday by many members of the crus and their guests. Mrs. Howard F. Whitney, Mrs. Francis S. Smithers and Mrs.
Arthur W. Rossiter directed the preparations. The opera selected was "The Secret of Suzanne." It was said that it was the first presentation of a complete opera at a country club.

WILLIAM M. R. FRENCH.

Was Director of Art Institute of Chicago Since 1879.

CHICAGO, June 3.—William M. R. Series of "musical mornings" are Mrs. French, director of the Art Institute of Chicago since 1879 and well known all of Chicago since 1879 and well known all over the United States through his electures, died here to-day.

William Merchant Richardson French was one of the best known authorities on art in the United States. He was born in Exeter, N. H., October 1, 1844.

Was a graduated from Harvard University in 1864 and took a special course in played a large part in giving New York its subways and was one of the city's most distinguished merchants, died yes-most distinguished merchants died yes-most distinguished merchants, died yes-most distinguished merchants died yes-most died yes-most distinguished merchants died yes-most d Mrs. Frederick Lutz, Mrs. Samuel Mc-Cullough, Mrs. George R. Dyer, Mrs. Charles Holm, Mrs. Francis L. Hine, Mrs. Charles O. Gates, Mrs. Lowry Gillette. Mrs. Walter L. Pate, Mrs. John S. Appleby and Mrs. Andrew Fletcher.

GIRL CHRISTENS BABY HIPPO

Two Lion Cubs Also Named at Central Park Ceremony.

The baby hippo born in the Central

The baby hippo born in the Central Park menagerie on May 14 was christened yesterday by a little girl, who scattered American Beauty roses and carnations upon it as the young one stood in the bottom of a tank in the lion house.

"I christen thee Kongo, and wish you a long and happy life," said the godmother, who was Isolde Mandelkern, 16 years old, of 320 West 110th street.

When Kongo's christening was over there was another ceremony with two lion cubs born on May 18. Miss Fulton was the mother, and it was decided to name the twins "Panama" and "Manila."

The bables were taken out on the lawn, The babies were taken out on the lawn, where it was sunshiny, and the little girl who named baby hippo did a similar duty for the cubs, the cubs nestling in her arms like kitters. arms like kittens.

Modelra-Welsh Engagement.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—Mrs. T. Henry Dixon announced to-day the betrothal of her daughter, Miss Maris Lowber Weish. was apparently in good health. At 3 ler daughter, Miss Maris Lowber Weish o'clock yesterday morning he was attacked by heart trouble and died in a few minutes. He was born in Greene county, New York, forty-two years ago. He deaves a wife and two young sons.

WILL CLOSE TRINITY IN THE nounced, is a sister.

nounced, is a sister.

Miss Welsh, who made her debut last winter, is the daughter of Mrs. Dixon by a former marriage and is connected with the Lowber and Welsh families. Her step-brother, Fitz Eugene Dixon, a little over a year ago married Miss Eleanor Elkins Widener, daughter of Mrs. George D. Widener, whose husband was lost on the Titanic.

Calumet Club Arranges to Move.

The Calumet Club, Twenty-ninth street and Fifth avenue, made final arrange-ments last night to move next fall to ments last night to move next fall to 12 West Fifty-sixth street, near Fifth avenue. The club is understood to have paid $259,000 for the new place. The house was formerly the home of Harry Hollins.

MARRIED.

COLLINS—YOUNG.—On Wednesday, June 3, at Christ Church, Greenwich, Conn., by the Rev. M. George Thompson, Amy Marguerite Young to Palmer Collins.

HUDSON—RAYMOND.—On Tuesday, June 2, 1914, at 18 West Seventy-seventh street, by the Rev. William H. Owen, Beatrice, daughter of the late James Raymond, to Ernest Reed Hudson. RUSSELL — PEARSALL — At All Angels' Church, June 3, by the Rev. S. De Church, June 3, by the Rev. S. De Lancey Townsend, D. D., Elizabeth Clark

Pearsall and William Frances Russell o RUESDELL - NORTON .- On Wednesday June 3, 1914, at 301 West Ninety-first street, by the Rev. James A. McWilliams, Henrietta Norton, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. Edwin Norton, to Dr. Edward Delavan Truesdell.

DIED. BOLLES .-- Annie. Funeral from "THE FU-NERAL CHURCH." 241 West Twenty third street (Frank E. Campbell Bldg.).

Thursday morning, 9 o'clock. O'BRIEN.—On Tuesday, June 2, 1914, at the home of his parents, 79 Pilling street, Brooklyn, N. Y., the Rev. Joseph A. O'Brien, pastor of St. Rosalle's Church, Good Ground, L. I.

Solemn requiem mass Friday, June 5, 10 o'clock, Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, Broadway and Aberdeen street, Brooklyn, N. Y. Divine office at 9:30 o'clock Interment at Holy Croes. RR .- On Wednesday, June 3, 1914, at his late residence, 102 Remsen street, Brook-lyn, N. Y., Alexander Ector Orr, in the eighty-fourth year of his age. Funeral services at Christ Church, corner of Clinton and Harrison streets, Brook lyn, N. Y., Friday, June 5, at 11 o'clock

A. M. Kindly omit flowers a meeting of the Board of Directors f The Mechanics and Metals National Bank held this day the President announced the death of Alexander E. Orr. the following minute was unanimously adopted:

r. Orr was elected a Director of The Mechanics National Bank in 1874, and its first Vice-President in 1883, and at the time of its merger with the National Copper Bank in 1910 he was elected a Vice-President of the enlarged institution, and the Directors hereby express their appreciation of his long and faithful service. His regard for the institution was manifested in the fact that with his gradual retirement from business this was one of the institutions with which he continued to be actively connected. Mr. Orr represented the highest and best type of citizenship. He was a man of rare judgment, great moral courage and one who never al-lowed his name to be identified with any undertaking but of the highest character. To enumerate his activities would be to write of the growth and wealth of New York City. The country of his adoption has lost an able and good man, but his life and what he accomplished will always serve as an inspiration to young men who desire to accomplish things that are worth

Resolved. That a copy of this Minute be published and a copy suitably engrossed be sent to Mr. Orr's family. GATES W. McGARRAH, President.

JOSEPH S. HOUSE, Secretary of the Board. New York, June 3, 1914.

UNDERTAKERS FRANK E CAMPBELL 231-3 PONERAL DIRECTOR PLUMP PAGE CHILDRAN PAGE CHILDRA BAY OR NIGHT. FUNERAL CHURCH

CREMATORIES.

INTELLIGENT, scientific and sanitary method. U. S. Cramation Co., Middle Village, L. I. Pamphlets free. Phone Bushwick 5517.